What I've Been Facing

For the past few months, I have done a great deal of soul searching through prayer. I have struggled to seek God's vision and mission for Full Supply because I really wanted to know if God was leading us in a new direction, adjusting the current vision and mission or keeping it as it has been.

What has been revealed over time is:

- We are going in a new direction, and I am excited about God's leading!
- We have made adjustments to the vision and mission that bring needed growth for greater impact!

- We will continue to raise leaders who impact others for Christ, but doing so out of their God-given passion
- Now, I am moving forward with a sustained faith that only the Lord could provide to fulfill a mission bigger than myself!

Praises

- Developed a daily prayer team
- Clarity of mission and vision
